

Start the Party

Jesus liked to party! From weddings to dinner parties, He had a way of leveraging a good party to remind all of us of what mattered most. In the 11-weeks of this series, your teenager will be challenged to see ordinary moments as extraordinary opportunities to bring more life, more joy, more hope, and more energy to their own lives and the world around them.

MEMORY VERSE

“The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.”
John 10:10, NIV

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your teen starts their day, let them know about something complimentary someone else has said about them—or give them a compliment from you.

Their Time

Create a compliment or encouragement folder—one for you, and one for your teen. Anytime someone encourages you or says something kind, write it down or print it out and put it in the folder. Refer back to the folder contents anytime you need some encouragement.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, ask: “If you could celebrate your birthday in any way possible—cost is not an issue—how would you celebrate?”

Bed Time

Pray that you and your teen will see the good things God has created in you both (not just the bad like we often do), and the ways He is always with us to help us with whatever life brings.
